

RoboTest Terms and Condition of Sale

1. Installation and Testing

If RoboTest International has been requested to perform the installation and commissioning of its equipment, the installation and commissioning cost will be quoted separately and will depend upon the extent of available help, equipment, and most importantly, accessibility to the installation site and site conditions.

When RoboTest is contracted to perform product installation, it is understood that, for both parties, time is of the essence and they mutually agree to see to the performance of their respective work. If RoboTest's progress is hampered because of delays in the owner's responsibilities then RoboTest shall be compensated for said delays.

2. Warranty

All products manufactured are warranted to be free from defects in material or workmanship for a period of 12* months from date of shipment. Our obligation under this warranty is limited to the repair of defect at no charge for parts, labor and transportation.

This warranty is limited to products purchased and installed. It does not apply to damage caused by accident, misuse, fire or acts of God. It does not apply to damage caused from failure to properly install, operate or maintain the product(s) in accordance with the printed instructions.

This warranty is in lieu of any warranties, expressed or implied, including merchantability or fitness for particular purpose.

3. Shipment and Delivery

Shipping dates are approximate and based on prompt receipt of all necessary information by RoboTest International. RoboTest shall not be liable in damages to the Purchaser for default or delay in the production or delivery of all or a portion of the order where such default or delay results either directly or indirectly from causes beyond our control. Our best efforts are put forth to make delivery within the time estimated, but failure to affect shipment as estimated will not be considered cause for cancellation and/or claims arising from such delay.

4. Acceptance

The acceptance of any order or specification and terms of payment are subject to the approval of the corporate office, and all sales contracts become effective only when approved and accepted in writing by the corporate office.

Any variation in these terms and conditions shall not be binding unless in writing and signed by one of our authorized officers.

5. Cancellation

After acceptance, orders shall not be subject to cancellation by the Purchaser, unless the Purchaser fully protects RoboTest International against any incurred cost. A standard restocking fee may be applied.

6. Postponement

Prices quoted do not include extra cost of handling and warehouse storing charges if delivery is postponed by Purchaser after the order has been started into the manufacturing processes.

7. Liability

RoboTest International assumes no liability for consequential damages of any kind. The Purchaser, by acceptance of this equipment, will assume all liability for the consequence of its use or misuse of the Purchaser, his/her employees, or others.
